Jingle Bell Build 2024

Sponsorship opportunities

Partnering with Habitat for Humanity Okanagan

Thank you for your interest in sponsoring the 2024 Jingle Bell Build which will take place on Thursday November 21, 2024 @ the Laurel Packing House in Kelowna.

The work of Habitat for Humanity Okanagan would not be possible without the unwavering support of our generous partners and sponsors. Sponsorships and fundraising events like the Jingle Bell Build are critical to helping us achieve our mission of bringing the community together to help families build strength, stability and independence through affordable home ownership.

Our affordable housing program helps to restore hope, affordable housing helps to break the cycle of poverty, and it gives children a chance to grow up in a stable, healthy home where they can truly thrive. Your sponsorship would be helping to provide a pathway to affordable homeownership for more families and creating an impact that will last for generations.

More and more community members increasingly favor businesses that actively participate in community initiatives like this. Therefore, Habitat Okanagan is committed to building a sponsorship/partnership that aligns best with your corporate social purpose and business objectives.

Upon reviewing the sponsorship information or if you have an interest in one more opportunities or a new creative idea you don't see represented within. Please do reach out to us — we'd love to discuss your idea and work with you to develop a Jingle Bell Build sponsorship opportunity that fits best for your group or company.

About

The Jingle Bell Build corporate edition is back!

With MORE twists, turns and fun for local groups and corporate teams ready to help build better futures for more local families in need!

The Habitat for Humanity Jingle Bell Build event invites businesses, groups, clubs, students, seniors, artists, designers and many more to come together to help raise funds for Habitat for Humanity while showing off their talent, skill and imagination at one of Kelowna's ultimate holiday fun events.

For one night only teams will come together to build the most affordable housing in the Okanagan and ALL the dollars they raise will go directly to support Habitat's affordable home ownership program right here in the Okanagan.

Every sponsorship dollar makes the Jingle Bell Build event possible while enabling Habitat to build more homes.
